SATUEDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 4.

Twice Married,-The marriage of Miss Swift, the beautiful daughter of G. F. Swift, and Edward Morris, eldest con of Nelson Morris, was celebrated in Chicago on Thureday night at the residence of the bride's father. The wesith of the bride's father is estimated at $10,000,000 and that of the father of the groom a. $20,000,000 Both are pork packers. Young Morris will fail beir to his father's millions, while his newlywedded wife will get a fair sbare of her father's state. Owing to the fact that Miss Swift is a Christian and Mr. Morris an Israclite, two marriage ceremonies were per-formed, the first by the R-v W. A. Pullips, of the Winter Street Methodist Church, and the second by a rabbi of the Jewish Church, Rahhl Hirsch

How THEY MOWED IN EGYPT - An Egyptian soythe, recently unearthed, is exhibited among the antiquities in the private museum of Mr. Flinders Petrie in London. The shaft of the instrument is wood supporting a row of flat eaws which are securely cemented into it. This discovery will set at rest the speculations which have been made as to how the crops of the land were gathered in the flint and early copper age. It has long been suspected that such an instrument as Mr. Petrie has brought to light was used, but there was no direct evidence.

Miscellaneous.

The court officials at St. Petersburg are preparing a programme for a national cele-bration of the siver wedding of the Czar, which occurs on November 9, 1891.

It is queer to notice an ear of corn-one never find, an odd number of rows on it. Generally it contains fourteen, sixteen, or twenty, or some even number of rows.

A summary of railroad construction in the United States in the first nine months of 1890 shows that 3,782 miles of new road have already been built in 39 States and on 212 different lines. The States showing the largest amount of new mileage are Georgia, 323 miles; Montana, 312; North Carolins 226, and Washington, 207.

A shameful and escrilegious joke was perpetrated at the First Baptist church, Rev. A. M. Prentril, pastor, at Toy, N. Y. Sucday night. Some boys arranged a skeleton with a rope so as to jark it up right behind the preacher in the pulpit, where it dangled while the ladies of the congregation screamed. The perpetrators were not discovered.
